Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, June 21, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, you devote yourself to our cause for the love of us. You give of your strengths every day by taking down these messages. As future times will be oriented toward broadmindedness, these messages will be recognised and appreciated for what they are: a teaching emanating from another level of consciousness and offered to our way. They have therefore a specific quality which will be able to touch the hearts of our brothers.

"The voice of the heart can recognise such qualities by transcending an intellectualism, which is not relevant in this domain. What cannot be recognised today will be recognised tomorrow. The vibration of this world is being changed in the right direction, which will be felt in men's hearts as it facilitates their evolution.

"Those who are on their way will benefit from it to a larger extent, because of the acceleration of the process of this transformation that has been awaited for so long by the hearts in search of the Divine.

"Humanity turning resolutely to this quest: that would be the most beautiful revolution of all times, making winners at all levels, but no victims. Each stone added to the edifice of this great achievement makes the work progress.

"Our way contributes to the development of this movement which is underway. It is discreet in the present stage of its development. That will not always be the case: everything will happen in due time. God is great, His views concerning this world fit in to a large project whose scope goes beyond this world."
