Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

My child, try to remain serene amidst the turbulences of your Earthly life. You can change nothing about it; just do your best by drawing from your inspiration what you should do in compliance with your faith. Human beings are not reliable, as you know. The only values that endure are those that you adhere to. They are your comfort and grounds for hope, you should always move closer to them. Immerse yourself in this ocean of peace and love which your heart is longing for. Everything is immutable therein and so far away from the conflicts prevailing in this world. Each human being must go until the end of his way, whatever it is; he can avoid nothing. Following it with more lucidity and wisdom makes one stronger and helps surmount obstacles. You already know all of this, but it is good to repeat it whenever necessary. Everyone on this Earth is confronted with difficulties of a different nature but which lead to the same result: to help him in his personal development.

"Faith in God is his most reliable refuge; this enlightenment on the meaning of life makes it possible to put the twists of fate into perspective. There is no other way out: whether they are powerful or miserable, humans must go through their cycle of unavoidable ordeals.

"Happy are our brothers who are on their way, in a spiritual quest allowing them to soar away from life's events!

"May they all be blessed and strengthened!"
