Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Monday, July 28, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

Malleable in the hands of God – so is your heart, offered to His great mercy. Your struggles led it to this state. It surrenders to Him with fervour, not being worried about events that occur, as they result from His will. More than once, life has bullied it. It came out of this trying course with increased stature, and its faith became stronger and stronger in Him.

"This long way led it to the feet of the Master. Being reassured, it knows now that it will achieve the goal. Its vocation is love. It is not a warrior well-accustomed to fights, to the illusory battles taking place all over the world. Its fights are not visible; they remain hidden from men's eyes.

"Love develops in the secrecy of hearts; it is distilled slowly and is strengthened with time. Having withstood the storms, its strength becomes exemplary and will not weaken.

"Everyone has his own experience; it takes lives to bring the soul to its higher destiny. It is very tempting for a human being to embark on ways that can make him deviate from his path. Grace often remedies it through secret actions and brings him back to the right track.

"May they all, in large number, accept our proposal and understand the hidden force of action which seems insignificant to those least informed.

"The new era will show hearts as they truly are. This discovery relates to the future which is already taking shape for a great number of them, as they have decided to work for it."
