The day of your meeting will be an event. This prospect delights us. We will do all the best to use your potential according to your health on that day. Spare yourself, my daughter, during this difficult time when you are not assisted as needed. We appreciate your being entirely at our disposal. Only love can justify surrendering like that. Your heart is entirely offered to us. We surround as well as possible our son during his tour, instructive about the many needs of our abhyasis brothers and sisters.

"Life as it stands in these countries does not facilitate a diligent spiritual process. Nevertheless many are making necessary efforts. The demand is high. A time will come when it will prevail over everything and our aspirants will really be keen on making efforts, which we will have to meet.

"This planet is currently going through a long transitional period where human beings are hustled; they cannot find any more their bearings, many of them lose control of their life, which is becoming alarming.

"This process is just starting; humanity has not yet undergone all its vicissitudes. Faith will be its supreme recourse; we are working towards its elevation and our way will represent one of the means towards it.

"Our aspirants must remain trustful and determined in their progress, it represents the possibility of holding their course in this turbulent life."
