Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, July 30, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

Come to refresh your heart in us, far from the worries of this world. Close the door to it and surrender to the divine power.

"See how calm and beautiful everything is here; your soul can enjoy these privileged moments.

"Our ritual is a means for you to get rejuvenated in us, and this reading will also help other hearts when they are in the same state of receptivity. In such moments, grace can manifest itself. A fervent soul calls for it; it is good for it to isolate itself like that and to vibrate in this mystical choir where songs soar towards the infinite.

"You needed to escape today and flee the ugliness of the world, the strains of which you are feeling. We already said that your conditions are not conducive to what you are doing; nevertheless, you do it with love and perseverance. We cannot ignore your difficulties and we wish our protection could be extended toward saving you from undergoing them.

"Faith is your torch. Remain bound to the divine heart of your Master. He is working for the entire humanity and each one of our brothers in particular. Soar above this world, towards the luminous heights which your spirit can reach. Only consider that which is beautiful, unique and divine, as it will not perish. The most amazing buildings will collapse, continents will be dislocated, but happy hearts will carry on their way, enlightened from within by this source of light that is unique, since it is divine and eternal.

"You deserve to be rewarded for exhibiting so much love and faithfulness. We also love you, my child. How could we remain insensitive to this surrender? You say that your love for us is your only achievement; this love is a rare commodity, believe us, and we appreciate it.

"Remain well bound to the heart of your Master; it greatly needs the faithfulness of his fervent disciples, surrounding him with all their love.

"So, you are reassured now, my child. We bless you and above all, do not change.

"Do not conceal these remarks – will you?"
