Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Friday, August 8, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

Remain surrendered, my daughter. You are our chosen one; there are many reasons for that.

"You are focused on the heart channel, allowing our 'voices' to reach you. It is large and royal. The doubts, which you are assailed by periodically concerning your abilities to serve us, are a demonstration of your profound nature: with a few inhibitions. You do not take yourself seriously; this attitude facilitates our work. We are satisfied. Should we continue? It seems that my son has formed an opinion. We wish a relationship to be established between both of you, in greatest confidence, putting aside the purely human reactions. These reactions disturb what we are awaiting from this meeting, the day it occurs. Your great sensitivity will have to be taken advantage of for the meeting to be very positive.

"No interference is caused to the contacts that take place between you through the channels of the Spirit, given the level where they occur. In spite of yourselves, you are dragged into a business which humanly is beyond you. We ensure that our plans succeed. Love, this divine fire which burns in your hearts, brings you together in spite of yourselves. At such a level, love breaks down all barriers; it opens the doors to valorous hearts, free from egotistic aspirations and doubtful motivations.

"It was bound to happen: you must meet and, more precisely, you must reunite. In this long history of yours, you are not unknown to one another; although they are not important for the occasion, your memories will be brought back. Love your Master, my child; you wished to love him the way you love me. Have you succeeded in that? We bless you."

Babuji