Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Start to enjoy life and to cope again, my child, you have to. We encourage you in this through these contacts where you find the serenity that your heart longs for.

"Revel in joys provided by a spiritual life well understood; they must give you the necessary strength to go until the end of the road. Immerse yourself in the reading of some poeticised messages which your soul relishes.

"Keep faith and fervour in serving us. All is well; the divine laws have and will always have primacy. Some 'great men' believe they are ruling the world. They are invisible in the hands of God who acts, and strikes, for the good of all, whatever the unexpected means employed. Men's pride is boundless. They often refer to God to salve their conscience, while satisfying their cupidity. Their faith belongs to a game which they find convenient to hide their misdemeanours. All is counted and weighed. It was said that God would find his own, without any doubt. Salvation depends on a serious spiritual process, capable of having a being face himself.

"In its long process, the soul must surmount many obstacles. This initiatory career is painful; no one can escape it. Relevant rules are strict. Our common father knows what is good for each one. It is advisable to remain absolutely convinced of it, to develop faith and, whatever happens, to always be surrendered – as recommended in any true process."
