Thursday, October 2, 2003 - 10:00 AM

To my son,

"In a little more than a decade, our Mission has taken off all over the world. My dear son, the work accomplished is very much appreciable. You spare no efforts in spite of the many difficulties encountered. You know that in this world, it is inevitable that nothing is easy, which makes the success even more exemplary. The Mission is at a turning point in its history, in the much wider history of the whole of humanity that has reached a critical stage endangering this planet. Our way provides it a considerable opening to values surpassing profit and the resulting hatreds and violence.

"Spiritual life, with the balance and the broadmindedness it is supposed to develop in man, brings a favourable way out of this world in distress. Once again, your voyage to the many places visited will stimulate the action of our brothers and sisters and will motivate them more in their practice. To see their Master is for them a rare blessing, which the majority of them appreciate fully.

"Many souls are in search, awaiting a rare opportunity to meet the Master who is destined for them. The higher powers endorse the work being carried out in our Mission. The new development happening in terms of this Foundation is also important. Nothing should be neglected in this respect; it [the Mission] must rest on firm foundations at all levels. Continue to support all that can serve it. You are the right man for the job, the right spiritual Master who will promote its expansion all over the world.

"My son, blessed among all, we support you and we love you. "

Babuji