Thousands of stars are shining in the sky, all being carriers of a message of hope to humans that are wondering about their future. Life does not stop with life on Earth. Thinking thus is testimony of a special lack of imagination. Their spell here below is only one halt necessary to open their eyes on a gruelling reality--that of this world offering many possibilities of evolution. Nothing is easy there and all is numbered; every single act, good or bad is recorded in the long list of deeds tipping the scales, sometimes towards the good, sometimes towards evil. Our role is not to record the results, our work lies elsewhere. Liberating man from his carapace, it aims to take him to higher levels where he can catch a glimpse of another aspect of his personality. He only exists in this world for the following purpose: to go beyond materiality and to conquer a salutary space of evolution, liberating him from the cycle of reincarnations. Our method, properly implemented, acts in this direction. The spiritual Master, with his powers, remains the best guarantor of this vast cleaning process, releasing men's hearts from the throes in which they are confined, foreseeing no way out of this slavery maintained from one incarnation to another, without notable progress in their eyes.

"The era of a true and effective spirituality will remedy this fact. May it please God that it should be established as soon as possible on Earth."
