Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, October 15, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

Our meeting point is not the same as the one with the entity of your Master: conditions are completely different. He is incarnate and your 'Beloved' is not. Your contacts with him are more exemplary and will stand out in our way. My son manages to express himself beyond his physical body from a higher level of consciousness where his 'true self' can manifest itself differently than what he could do on Earth.

"As was already said, Sahaj Marg will be in the future at the heart of a great unifying movement, highly spiritualised. Given the evolution of our brothers, this uniqueness will be highly appreciated. Some advanced beings will communicate directly with high level Masters who would have come to provide extremely valuable help. All that is still amazing today will become normal.

"Minds must start preparing now for this unprecedented transformation. They cannot move into this new era if they remain set in their limited views and do not want to open up to what is beyond them. Only intelligence of the heart is critical in this matter, the importance of diplomas has no bearing on it. The comprehension of these phenomena is not at all restricted to an elite as defined by humans.

"Our teachings are intended for all and on no account should they be restricted by irrelevant considerations. Evolution will take place in spite of resistances and restrictions set by men who themselves fear all that they do not understand. In due time, drastic measures will be resorted to so that humanity can progress; at that time, it would be better to not step back."
