Try to keep this attitude, my child. Delight in each minute of life which is given to you to serve, and offer thanks for the opportunity being offered to you to carry out this work. It is important, as we have often repeated, and it is time you were persuaded of it. Why these daily messages, if they were to remain indefinitely ignored by our brothers?

"There is a right time for everything. It is up to my son to decide. In his great wisdom, he will be able to make the right choice, at the opportune moment. In view of this event, people are being prepared from within each one of them as the information circulates in a vibratory manner within the égrégore formed by our way. The need for this publication will prevail and it will be well received by the majority of our brothers, even if they can be somewhat puzzled by the source of these messages.

"The new era is in the making and they will be amazed for many other reasons. Spiritual work will facilitate their integration in a new way of life, radically different in the future. Only the degree of evolution of human beings will enable them to remain in tune and to progress in accordance with the great upheavals, which are being prepared.

"When the time comes, one will not have to look backwards; the selection will be straightforward. We are doing everything possible so that our aspirants could find the right place in this great saga, which would impassion them if they knew of all its subtleties and especially the outcome. A regular practice already helps them; this system was not given to the world in vain. With hindsight, not only are the results of this work visible, but also are very much encouraging.

"May God, in His great goodness, help all our brothers in view of this spiritual rebirth which is being prepared on Earth."
