Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Let your heart remain joyful; it will become an incomparable strength. Maintain it and cherish it constantly, like an offering made to Divinity. Do not forget that the heart is a door opening on the Infinite. Each minute of life is a present when it is viewed from this angle: service, in the acceptance of the ups and downs and the ordeals to be got over.

"To live in this state of mind makes things easier. The negative side of life is to be accepted while keeping well in the heart this joy that nothing can affect. How could love better manifest itself? To love with sadness is inconceivable; it is irrelevant at this level. Do not lose sight of this rule of life, which takes on a new meaning in your case. Let your heart open out, without limiting itself whatsoever; it will be a new critical stage for it where it will give its best.

"You are fully involved in this discovery and you do not see this comment as futile, since it is deeply felt. When words truly reflect reality, they reinforce awareness, hence the necessity of repetitions, which sooner or later end up meeting their objective.

"Work in peace, my child. Accept your life like a present, an unprecedented grace, insofar as it is dedicated to divine love and to service.

"Call this state of grace in you. The time has come for a new turn in your career and to accept it with great gratitude. Continue to live in love, fully, by minimising the burdensome side of your existence and all will be well."
