Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Remain confident, why couldn't you manage to receive us today! Your heart is joyful, it is happy with this new frame of mind, keeping it from a good many rather negative reactions on the uselessness of your life on Earth.

"Each day of your existence, each minute, is a present enabling you to offer your best – let us repeat it, therefore do not forget it. We understand that this way of life can generate a certain lassitude. Keep an inalterable joy in you, it will keep growing and reinvigorating you.

"Only this richness is out of reach of the twists of fate. It is a power which resists ordeals and will always open doors for you. It is not easy to adopt this attitude in all circumstances. With time, it will become second nature.

"Until the end, one must fight with oneself. Certain ordeals can reveal gaps; it is advisable to remedy them and to draw lessons from one's weaknesses. That is the purpose of an incarnation where each one can, with lucidity, look at oneself as he stands and act in the appropriate direction, if he so really wants.

"When arriving in a spiritual way like ours, our brothers can more easily look into themselves. They wish to forge ahead, to discover themselves and also eliminate what can be prejudicial to their evolution. They expect a lot from their process; it enlightens them and makes them stronger when faced with adversity. They can more and more be aware of the illusory side of this life. As they advance, they realise that this life is an opportunity for them to progress, to be harmoniously shaped. They will find in themselves a comfort and a feeling of calm provided by the spiritual practice. With time, they will be able to assess their progress and the way they have come.

"May they always advance, in confidence and divine love."
