

Friday, November 7, 2003 - 10:00 AM

Medium: Teach me how to love properly, Babuji.

"My child, this learning process is very long. You are progressing and perfection will be obtained with time and the purification of the heart. Feeling this profound aspiration testifies to good aptitude for succeeding. Until the end of your life, you will be given opportunities to progress at all levels, according to your wishes. An incarnation is a rare opportunity to get rid of useless things around oneself and, especially, within oneself. That is a delicate work where each asperity must be overcome with wisdom to draw from it the necessary lesson. Until the end of your life, you will have to act like that, so that you will manage to keep in yourself an unfailing serenity.

"Never lose sight of your objective. Immerse yourself in love, as you live it today, in grace and selflessness. Thus you will progress in this conquest, the only one that is worth it, as you know already. It will clear your way to this state your heart is yearning for. Don't give up, no matter what may happen. Try to remain focused on your objective. You are progressing towards the goal with perseverance. Our way offers to you all that your soul is longing for.

"Leave it to your Master more than ever; he is the best guarantor for this success. He is the torchlight lighting your way; the prolongations of his heart are innumerable. He carries along in his wake the hearts of our brothers and well beyond. He himself cannot humanly assess the importance of his work! Each vibration of his divine heart attracts the multitude. That is how it is. His life is precious in many respects. Wherever it is, it acts in the purest spirit, from the point of view of the most complete fusion with the Ultimate."

Babuji