Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, December 7, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

Regain your self-control, my child. Do not be overwhelmed either by anxiety about tomorrow or your emotions. Manage them in the right way, that is with the right sense of balance necessary for your well-being.

"Live your faith, altogether, by coping as best you can to overcome these moments of trouble harming your equilibrium. Devote yourself more and more to love, in complete surrender. Let it overwhelm you and lead you above the flow of life and its turbulences: it will give you all its fruits. Let your heart soar, joyful and free; this day of tranquillity makes this state possible. Be connected with your Master more and more, in confidence and love for the Divine one.

"We will keep repeating all these simple truths to you, which you, our aspirants, often leave aside to be carried by the merry-go-round of life. Set aside moments of meditation when your senses can be at rest to facilitate the blaze of a higher spirituality. Make sure that it is given its true place – that which, when the time comes when you have left this human body, will lead you through doors accessible to pure hearts.

"Your soul needs this ethereal food, it is longing for perfection. In these moments you intensely feel this thirst, this call coming from the mists of the ages, whereby the soul aspires to be united to its God. Do not neglect the main thing; do not lose sight of your real objective, beyond the success of your life here below. Be connected with delight to the inner Master; pay all necessary attention to him: he will provide it to you in return. In this domain, love is not one way: you will attract grace and the light will light your way."
