Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Friday, December 19, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: "Beloved Father, You are my haven of peace, my luminous and glorious Infinity."

My child, your impulses of Love are touching; they express your profound faith in us, your commitment to serve our cause in your own way. Your love is spontaneous and without self-interest; it is refreshing for our hearts. Each one of our brothers is proceeding with his own means. Some of them reason, analyse and develop complicated equations to set a goal and to determine their line of conduct. Only the result matters. It must, in the final analysis, lead them to this capital discovery: the Divine love. Without it, the very essence of spiritual progress is just not there because it is essential and is the driving force leading to the goal. In time, this discovery will be made, if this inclination is not naturally present now. The work being carried out in our way leads to this state. The evolution of the applicant breaks barriers, thus letting him access a favourable condition.

"It helps our aspirants develop their true nature, profound and sublime, since it is connected to the Divine. This process reveals the noble and immutable aspects of beings. It is rejoicing to see the flowering of this wonder: souls are opening to the splendour of this unique beauty in its essence. May the time come when the multitude will advance under the burning fires of this love. May all be blessed."
