Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, January 11, 2004

Who could claim to do better than you? Your Master also said that doubt is necessary, it prevents excessive self-confidence which most often is harmful to man and leads him to an appalling attitude of superiority.

"Humility must prevail in all circumstances, and more so in the context referred to herein. All is well like that, my child."

Babuji