Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, January 18, 2004 – 12:30 p.m.

My child, we love you, as you know. How could it be otherwise? We prove it by trusting you. Enjoy this respite in your health condition. Take advantage of these moments of peace that allow you to remain in union of heart and thought with us. You will receive news from your Master a little later. All is well as per our wishes."

(Later)

"Do not remove any of these messages. All have their raison d'être, whatever their source."
