Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, January 20, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

Go beyond the framework of human baseness, which currently complicates things in your material life. What will remain of all that at the end of the day? Humans are like that; we have to accept it. Immerse yourself in all that is the salt of your life on this Earth and in your usual refuge, which includes these contacts that are the extension of your spiritual commitment. Spiritual commitment transforms the life of our brothers who, in their respective ways, are likewise grappling with multiple difficulties.

"Nobody escapes them; laws are what they are, we cannot change anything on this point. However, our brothers can change. Their perseverance in following us, by putting their trust in us, is a decisive element that made them understand the meaning of their incarnation. Man, by nature, is in search of happiness and stability, yet this generally escapes him. Only wisdom can make him accept his life as it is by trying to understand the meaning of it.

"It is not easy to accept all the reasons why his incarnation does not meet his expectations. Who can accept ordeals without batting an eyelid? Their purpose within our way is to help them with all their questionings on existential difficulties.

"We cannot comply with their wish to make life easier for them. Where then would the challenge be? We first attend to the most urgent matters related to each one, and they represent a lot of work. Their commitment is made of perseverance in practice and unfailing confidence, which are decisive elements. We cannot help them against their own wishes.

"All this is glaringly obvious, you will say, but it is not so easy to follow a path without stumbling over obstacles. There are always stumbling blocks on the path which the strongest person may not always be able to avoid."
