Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Saturday, January 31, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

My child, open your window onto the Infinite and forget this world, at least during our contacts which are not affected by the hassles of this world.

"A person's passage on Earth, when it is well understood and accepted with gratitude, is conducive to the evolution of their soul. In this case, each ordeal helps one to grow. It is not easy to see life from this angle and yet doing so is the beginning of wisdom.

"The purpose of our ceaseless repetitions on the various manifestations of life is to touch the hearts of our aspirants. One day, one of our repetitions will be particularly effective, clearing their way to new prospects. This progress takes place by degree, broadening the scope of our work.

"It is not easy to break resistances; the ego of each one of them is dreadful. Breaking apart that armour is a real feat! The reason for our hopes lies in the heart. Many paths lead to it, even if they are fraught with deep pitfalls. Hope and confidence are the strength of seekers; they do not struggle in vain. One day, they will realise the amount of profit yielded by each difficulty they encounter. Our way helps the seekers accordingly, by opening them up more and more to the divine light, the source of every benefit.

"When they manage to become aware of their progress, they see their life in a different light. We cannot iron out all their difficulties, as these belong to their destiny. But, seen differently, difficulties lose their power over the seeker. He is no longer easily dragged into negative feelings. He has better things to do. May each one finally understand and be liberated from the influence of his difficulties!

"We are working toward the evolution of all, their active cooperation is very welcome. When will they finally understand it? With God, nothing shall be impossible."

Babuji