Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, February 15, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

My daughter, be reasonable, you need to rest. Read again these beautiful books with collections of poem-like messages. They touch your soul in a special way, as it is sensitive to beauty and the splendour of divine love when it is expressed in that form. Your soul feeds on love with fervour and it finds more nuances of it in these messages.*

"They will touch my son all the more when he receives them, as he too has the soul of a poet. Devotion needs to feed on grace.

"Take heart, we are by your side. We love you."
