Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Overcome your worries and join us in this heart-to-heart contact. Life is not limited to this one; it is full of resources and is renewed indefinitely. It can take on different aspects meant to foster awareness as per the forms of expression being used on the Earth. It is multifaceted and enlightening; an incarnation represents only one of its many facets. A lifetime on this planet can be compared to a page in a book, and can, in the best cases, translate into a masterpiece. When a human being opens up to spiritual life, he thus starts a highly meaningful chapter in his life that can lead him to the ultimate conclusion.

"Our brothers and sisters know it; hasn't their life changed since their first steps in our way! The months and years fly by. Our abhyasis can turn around and look back. Having assessed the progress made, they set out again even more motivated. Their stay in this world justifies the difficulties, joys and sorrows that shaped them and led them to this search that resulted from a profound aspiration. They understand the true meaning of life, its opportunities and the extent to which it can enlighten them well beyond this transient existence.

"We help them to understand all the stages of this long career fraught with all sorts of difficulties, but also comprised of this joy that is subtle and indefinable to the eyes of men who only wallow in a material life and are deprived of a sense of the Divine.

"May our aspirants progress more and more towards perfection as we define it, and make this incarnation an unprecedented success in their long process."
