Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, February 17, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

My daughter, you are not a machine, fortunately. It is normal that you reacted to some of our remarks, which led you to a reasoning that allowed you to appreciate them; that is the characteristic of human nature. How could it be otherwise! What you are experiencing in these contacts is not ordinary: you are even propelled outside your physical body. The experience would disconcert many of our brothers. This is only possible through a perfect balance that achieves a satisfactory work; gifts alone would not be enough.

"Don't worry, our remarks will intrigue some of our readers who are not open enough to this practice that is still ignored and who especially mistrust what they cannot do themselves. We intend to give them the necessary guarantees through our many evaluations and verifications of facts. We will not comment any longer on the issue; each one has to see and appreciate according to one's own convictions.

"The new era will be conducive to many manifestations, much more amazing than these writings of a somewhat special genre. Our way will not be static and will not stop at the current stage. Our work prepares those beings who trust us for an open-mindedness that enables them to advance on all levels. Our teaching will not be stuck on its starting points; future times will foster awareness about the eternal truths. Our brothers will adapt very well to the vibratory changes capable of transforming humanity, in terms of its simple-mindedness.

"You see, my daughter, these messages are only a starting point in this matter. Continue to serve us with love; all is well."
