This new sanctuary of the Mission is amongst the most charged places in India. From now on, we are among the higher spiritual places. It is the culmination of a whole founding process [initiated by] Revered Lalaji, who by divine grace, gave us back, this very old system for the transformation of the human being, which he had adapted to our time. You will have witnessed the birth and growth of the movement that must influence the next century. Rejoice!

"There is no room for mistakes with regard to the body of people in charge at all levels. We need very motivated abhyasis, whom we can fully rely on. The most difficult thing is to be able to control some egos often hidden by great qualities.

"We cannot control everything in the least details, hence situations of friction, which you know.

"By and large, the wheels are operating well, but in the months to come, my son will have to continue to review the organization of the Mission in certain countries. We trust him fully. He is a man of action who has business acumen. He is unbeatable! Once again, he has just shown it with what he has just achieved in Manapakkam. You have a multi-gifted Master who has much to do. Set to work, you also, in your way."
