Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Saturday, March 6, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

Propel yourself into the heart of love; this vibration is unique at its highest level of subtlety. May your efforts be geared towards this noble goal, so that you can immerse yourself in it one day.

"Your physical body, with the many worries it gives you, makes your life difficult, but spiritually your assets are intact and your progress continues under favourable auspices.

"Be reassured on this point. Live your faith intensely, connected to the heart of your Master through this quest which leads to its highest level of achievement.

"All is well, my child."
