Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, March 25, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

My child, commune with yourself and pray for all those whose struggles and sufferings, like yours, are relentless. You can have recourse to faith, which is not the case for everyone. In these moments of broadening of consciousness where you go beyond the human condition, your soul can rejuvenate itself in the divine life which gives it its true meaning here below. Remain connected to us through the heart. On this level, you are not alone. Do not forget it; remain confident."
