Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Your road is punctuated with love, which embellishes each step of it. How could there be a spiritual process without this improvement that gives it its most beautiful halo?

"Yes, love is in the core of these messages, reflecting the very essence of a teaching, which at the dawn of the new era will meet a profound aspiration of our brothers caught in the swirl of an unprecedented evolution in the history of humanity. Humans merrily ridicule the divine laws, thus generating a heavy collective karma. Measures to remedy that will be far-reaching; their implementation will completely change what exists today. This civilisation seems to be at its peak; it is actually on the decline – sadly, victim of a foolish pride that prevents it from seeing the reality of the situation.

"Happy are those who seek God with sincerity and humility as is proper in dealing with this kind of process. God is love – they should not forget it. Beyond all reasoning, wonder lies concealed. A fervent heart never remains ignored; sooner or later, the doors will be opened wide for it."
