Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, April 8, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

One should not be fearful to express love. Some people do it more easily than others, but when a heart is truly touched by grace, it lays itself bare, seeking to convey the emotions of a soul in search of absolute splendour.

"Is there anything more beautiful than this process, anything nobler than these impulses that are so touching amid the ugliness expressed in this world? Each act of faith or surrender is appreciated; the beauty of a soul is like a point of light in the darkness attracting souls that are seeking the path, the favourable way leading them towards the Master who can guide them to the supreme source.

"You should not have this kind of modesty; let your hearts express this natural tendency, since God is the supreme and final goal for any creature. We encourage our brothers to progress in this process; it will embellish their lives, beyond expression.

"May all be blessed and reinforced in their process."
