Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, May 6, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

Attaining bliss is the most beautiful reward to a soul. To live this inner state strengthens the entire being in its many manifestations. Spiritual practice leads to this state, when it is heartfelt and one perseveres.

"The overall work being carried out in our way benefits all; the growing number of our aspirants will, more and more, give it a solid base in all respects. Is there anything more beautiful than the awakening of a soul heading to its higher destiny! There should be well more than one who will complete this metamorphosis and open up to the divine grace through the opportunity offered by the new era of humanity.

"Our remarks cannot, for the moment, be verified; some of our readers will remain sceptical about them. That is how man is; we cannot change him. The important thing lies elsewhere: in the opening that is being prepared mobilising vital forces on all levels of consciousness.

"Do our brothers have a presentiment of these upheavals? The most refined certainly do, as the invisible provides for it in a methodical and sure way. These times will come; they will open up bold prospects to all manifestations of life.

"Spiritual work prepares people. It is important in this big scheme. May our aspirants become aware of that and committed in their practice with full knowledge of the facts.

"The way is long, perseverance is essential; it strengthens the seeker, ensuring him a solid basis to cope with adversity.

"Each can be assured of personal success and is blessed in this undertaking."
