Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, May 16, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

The order in which these messages are given must be respected for many reasons. Nothing in this area is given whimsically. Anything that is not obvious herein to the reader fits into quite a precise plan, which we will not elaborate on. We are progressing in stages, providing a vibration that corresponds to them.

"These nuances are not perceived today, but that will not always be the case. Times are changing and will change even more; humans will advance in an increasingly refined perception of phenomena. It is advisable to prepare for the future. A new race is in the offing, whose faculties exceed what is generally known and will surprise ordinary mortals.

"Humanity will have to adapt to many changes and they will occur where they were not really expected. It will be unified by a common denominator: a correct perception of the divine manifestations that will not be able to divide men, as is the case now. This aspect is key. The stability of the world depends on it, as tragedies currently occurring as a result of men's incomprehension will keep increasing.

"Wisdom on this aspect will not happen quickly; all sorts of upheavals will have to occur beforehand and the consequences will be terrible. These times will remain the gloomiest in the history of this world. That is how it is; we cannot do anything about it. What must be will be, for the good of future humanity.

"My child, do not be affected by these comments; we prepared you for putting events into perspective. An incarnation is only a brief spell in this world. It is a representation, part of a broader movement inherent in the highly diverse manifestations of life."
