Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, May 27, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

Let your heart be overcome with joy. In such a climate, it will be easier for you to receive us. Remain confident in your destiny; each one has to face his destiny and cannot escape it. In spite of the ordeals, yours has a specific characteristic giving meaning to your life. Not everybody can receive us every day as you are doing. These messages will help people; do not doubt it. They deserve your giving of your best; your perseverance in serving us is noticed.

"Men, consciously or not, crave a teaching meeting their needs. Many are only waiting for an opportunity to engage in a way like ours. Hearts are feeling a great emptiness and this pain leaves them depressed at the sight of life, which is distressing sometimes because of its hardness and its lack of prospect on a higher level. Spirituality will be the lifeline for this world that is descending into misery, as true values are being scorned more and more.

"Humanity is going in the wrong direction. Everything must change on this aspect, before it is too late; the divine wrath could manifest itself very severely. Many hearts are ready to go in another direction. Our Mission is extending in the world and it will answer a growing request. Discreetly but surely, it must be seen in terms of the good and salutary aspects it offers to man.

"May the multitude find its way to salvation; ours is among the options available."
