Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Friday, June 4, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

Future times will give you the place you deserve in the history of these messages, of which you are the core, my child. Without you this godsend for our Mission would not exist. Remain confident. You are not devoting your energy in vain each day; your Master appreciates it, you can believe it. These writings will not remain ignored. They constitute an enrichment to our way, which will make the most from them, and our abhyasis, whose number will be on the increase, will benefit from them.

"It is in the nature of things, what must be will be! We will not go further today. Rest, it is necessary. Be blessed!"

Babuji