Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, June 20, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

This is what love is: complete surrender to the divine guide, leading the soul to its higher destiny. Love at this level emanates from the exaltation of the soul, driven by a powerful force attracting it. It comes from the source, from where it radiates to infinity. How could the soul resist it when it is ready? Love, my child; let yourself be completely conquered and carried to the goal, to which your heart aspires.

"Commune with yourself in this Holy of Holies, where you can taste the joys provided by it. Here resides the relief and oblivion of all pains. They are abolished in this moment when the soul is united with its God. Its thirst is big, the dryness prevailing in this world reinforces this need, this profound appeal for the subtle nectar which alone can quench its thirst and fill it with joy.

"Don't stop loving; do not fear to express it. Write it down, as you are doing herein, with the impetus being given to you. Your heart is in need and it languishes in this exile being imposed on it. In these contacts, it can show its impulses, supported by a soul mate walking by its side and guiding it towards the higher realms.

"It is good for a father to have such children. The bond between souls is powerful, with no comparison on Earth. It is subtle and reflects to infinity.

"Let special blessings unite them more and more."
