Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Wednesday, June 23, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

Each time, you can see how much the external world and personal problems subside in these moments of intense communion. Here is the only and true refuge of the being, when the soul is in this jubilant state. This get away is the safest; it cannot disappoint.

"All is vain here below, as God alone is immutable. Remember and never lose sight of this reality. It is more than a mere statement. How can we say it to convince humans, who are busy and subjected to the materialism that leads their lives? Many of them understand it and are looking for a means, a solution to this way of life to develop spiritually, which is being done by our brothers whose number is growing.

"The Mission has spread, equipped with a system capable of meeting their core aspiration to elevate themselves, to develop spiritually without a demanding doctrinal commitment. Their motivations are varied at the beginning; time and regularity clarify in them the true reasons to practise diligently. They understand their need for personal blooming.

"This spiritual life, whereby basic rules are complied with, punctuate the days, bringing them hope. Their Earthly existence is given another meaning; they manage to distinguish between what is essential for them and what is not. Each one is faced with this confrontation, necessary for one's evolution."
