Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Monday, July 12, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

Your spiritual life is a love song. How can we put it otherwise, since it carries you permanently, my child. Let it be expressed, unreservedly, as it is your strength and your reason for living on this Earth.

"To be listening to us justifies your life and makes it take on its full meaning, elevating it above the daily monotony. Your connection to the world of the Spirit, where you are privileged to tune in to us, enables us to communicate to our brothers some impressions and advice capable of helping them. All of them do not admit to this principle; no one can have unanimous support! In no way can unfavourable reactions stop what must be. Many will appreciate it – isn't this the main thing!

"This world must move and get out of its torpor and darkness in which, overall, it is advancing without real prospects. Everything, here below, is to be reconsidered. Future times will remedy this aspect of things by making up for glaring shortcomings. Spiritual life should open it to a conception of reality, enabling it to re-examine its priorities and its operating mode within the framework of an awakening to the precariousness of life.

"Men are misled; they lose their sense of values and logic. Everything is to be reconsidered. The divine laws are sorely scorned, without men even being aware of that. This fact, we can only repeat, is alarming. How did humanity reach this point! The reason seems to be the need to expunge all the negativity that has significantly weighed it down.

"God is Great; His secrets are equal to His omnipotence."
