You are privileged people. You know where you are going. Think of all those who do not have this hope and who do not know why they are on the Earth. Your current stage results from what you have amassed through your previous lives. You are in a spiritual way, which makes you quicken the pace. You will save much time if you do not waste it through laxity in your way of proceeding. Be very active and surrendered to the Divine, to your Masters, who work for your future realization."
