Tuesday, August 3, 2004 - 10:00 AM

Do not worry about that; my son finds strength and comfort through these messages. He is capable of appreciating them at their true value. They are first and foremost intended for him, so that he can use them as he sees fit. The planet Earth will be entering into a vibratory conjunction with very positive elements capable of changing its future status, whereby Sahaj Marg should find a choice place.

"The creative powers are working in secrecy on a level to which men have no access, and will never have, whatever their level of evolution. Each element of the created world has a place in this immense universe and cannot extrapolate, as far as its capabilities are concerned.

"The human being would like to penetrate the secrets of creation, but he is unable to understand his own nature, to keep a check on himself and to draw the desirable conclusions, which could benefit him. A genuine spiritual process helps them to become aware of their true personality, and to interiorize themselves as far as their capacity to progress permits.

"Understanding the purpose of this Earthly existence is a great step being taken towards self-acceptance and the liberation from the yoke of successive incarnations. By having a divine guide one benefits from the best conditions that could be offered in this world.

"Our aspirants are privileged. Do they realize it? A living Master is not given to all seekers. This opportunity will not recur eternally in our way. This pivotal period for humanity required such a favour: a succession of incarnate Masters in the service of men, ready for a process suitable for present times.

"Their blessings will keep covering this world."

Babuji