As suggested by your Master, immerse yourself in this fertile Eden where the contact with your heart becomes possible. Here is the enchantment it needs to surpass at the Earthly level the difficulties to be faced. It finds the necessary strength and motivation to advance in spite of the vagaries of life.

"It is not always easy, for a human being, to be able to dissociate the material from the spiritual life. Some people are entangled in a swirl leaving them little space to pull themselves together sufficiently. One day, maybe, they will understand their error by feeling a pressing need to seek what their current life does not provide to them.

"When the soul starts to manifest itself, it can become very inspiring and directive. These are the most obvious cases of divine manifestation. When the moment has come for a human being, the opportunities arise, and they can completely change the life of the happy chosen one. Each experience in this area is different; once this stage has been reached, the best can happen. Many of our brothers experienced this process having brought them to us. There are many ways of appealing to a heart ready for a spiritual work.

"Times are changing; imperceptibly, humanity is moving towards its destiny, which is not to stagnate in darkness of ignorance. It will still require many fights, sufferings, to eradicate this plague of obscurantism. The light is dawning on the horizon, many hearts have already received it, divine power is operating in them openly and this cycle is just starting."
