Living on love, maintaining this flame within oneself—what a privilege! You are requesting an inspiring message, my child. We know the words that make your heart leap by providing it the comfort it needs. How many times did we give this kind of message in this area! It is insatiable and we appreciate it as such.

"Loving is a commendable goal; the only one which is worth it, in fact, when it leads a being, completely conquered, to the feet of Divinity. For it, the most enlightening journey commences there, making its true nature take shape. A well-led spiritual process is precious in this case; the Master makes it save invaluable time.

"A moment comes in this process when the heart becomes impatient; only a high level spiritual Master will be able to meet this expectation. It will reach thus, stage by stage, what seemed inaccessible to it. Long is the way that leads towards the Absolute. It has to be earned in all respects; nothing is given without major reason. The guide knows where and when it is advisable to make the aspirant progress. In this area, imagination is excluded. The quest for the Divine is the most sacred one, the most decisive for a soul. The appeal being felt intensely, it can only get an answer to this expectation.

"God is great. He knows the hearts. Doesn't He dwell within them! Doesn't each pulsation repeat that: 'Life is there. I give it to you, so that eventually you became aware of my presence in you, in this spiritual heart where I am waiting for you!' That's how it is."
