Could you have lost the code to this secret door opening onto the garden of wonders? Within you is what you have been seeking to attain for a long time. Each contact of heart with us brings you closer to the goal; the shady areas disappear little by little, leaving room for more beauty. Advance in the harmony of the place, taste this unequalled calm. The divine is there, in the secret of this spiritual heart, the seat of the most accomplished mystical joys.

"Nothing, here below, is worth the trouble of neglecting this approach. A human being can taste all the pleasures of this world, until repletion, but there will remain in him a vacuum, an absolute emptiness which perhaps he will not be able to define. Only the profound aspiration of a soul to be uplifted can enlighten him on this point and push him to seek elsewhere for what he lacks desperately. A true spiritual process will fulfil it, through the perseverance of the searcher to progress in this way. All, for him, must result in this achievement, so was it programmed since the mists of time. His true fatherland is not in this world; this is only a place of probation preparing for a higher destiny.

"Doesn't everything have its raison d'être? Although men do not understand it, it is through ordeals that they can learn how to surpass themselves and allow to be revealed what is of a higher essence within them. All are presented with this treasure, but most of them do not know it and they neglect this divine presence with the greatest indifference. Many humans follow another way; our brothers are among them and their number will keep growing. That is how it is."
