Retain this heart of a child, that which has protected you from adversity. Here is what we can say to each one of our brothers: this heart is the seat of the soul, the very essence of the being in his frantic quest towards transcendence. Everything hangs on this level. Become as little children. If life has hardened you and moved you away from the source, this is the only thing that can refresh you. Your spiritual process has this objective: to make you focus on the essentials.

"This need is felt within you. Your material life can fulfil you, while leaving within you a feeling of emptiness, of indefinable lack. And yet, an unremitting practice highlights more and more this major aspiration to be united with the Divine. That is the achievement of a long quest; from wander to wander, the truth ends up unfolding to the searcher.

"Everything is so simple in this field: it is enough to want, to practise correctly and to resume a wisdom, having lost one's rights amidst the many attractions of a fictitious life fraught with obstacles diverting man from his true destiny.

"It takes him time to understand, and that is how it is. In this world, anything can happen: both the good and the bad. Many souls are waking up, nominated for a higher destiny. Those which will come towards us will be guided. That is the goal of our way: to meet the growing needs of humanity at the cusp of two worlds."
