Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Saturday, January 1, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Your desire to stop is a result of your difficulties, but isn't your eagerness to serve us stronger? This period once again is difficult, hence your great lassitude. What more can we say? The answers reside in yourself, since faith and surrender have always been what is strongest in your spiritual life. May your heart, more than ever, remain united with that of your Master. You know that our destinies are bound together.

"Be blessed, my child. Rest and pray."
