Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, January 2, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Your path is extraordinary. It takes time, you know, to find one's bearings again.

"Your spiritual life truly started within the framework of our way, where your gifts can show their worth. We will see whether it is possible to go further according to your health.

"Think of all our brothers who in this moment, throughout Europe, are meditating. Try to feel inside you this powerful flow, whose source emanates from the heart of your Master unifying all hearts. This ritual will be repeated in other parts of the world at other moments, but our brothers, wherever they are, will be carried by this redeeming energy characterising our spiritual way. Remain for a while in that vibration, in union of heart and thought with us."
