Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Monday, January 3, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Think of all those who are suffering and struggling on the Earth, without having the refuge of faith. Can you imagine that? That is the objective to be reached: to help all those beings to become aware of the presence of the Divine within themselves, connecting them to a unique power whose existence is not even suspected by many of them. That is saddening, but the laws of evolution are like that; working to serve them is our objective.

"At each important step in the history of the world an appropriate means, corresponding to the period, emerged to convey truths capable of enlightening men on their future. The new era will be privileged in that aspect beyond all possible predictions. A reappraisal on all levels will lead to establishing new foundations on which will be based an appropriate teaching that will not ignore the realities of this world and its place in the infinitely great.

"Each human being is a manifestation of life; he belongs to the Great Whole and nothing more. Some people assume rights, superiority of class or alleged intelligence; they are only the result of a karma that assigns them to one place or another. Contempt that they show for the most underprivileged sadly goes against them, as far as their life is concerned.

"Happy are those who understand these divine principles; they are progressing in a constructive way towards the goal, with a serene heart relieved of a heavy burden."
