Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Saturday, February 5, 2005 – 11:00 a.m.

Lend yourself henceforth to a heart-to-heart contact with Revered Lalaji. As he told you, his pictures showed an outward austerity, and yet his kindness was equalled only by his greatness. Your relationship has changed since that anniversary. This fact is important; the messages will be influenced by that, whatever their source. Your reluctance should not hinder those contacts any more. Let yourself be carried with love and surrender; you will not be asked to do anything impossible.

"You are taking down these messages under conditions that are often difficult, as you are not supported and helped as you should be; you do not enjoy the peace you desire. Do your best, my child; the result is praiseworthy all the more. Tomorrow will be another day. We will resume this contact from where we left off.

"Remain linked with your Master; you know very well that thought is power. More than anyone else, you are by his side through your love for us."
