Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Friday, March 4, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Your Master assumes his responsibility with nobility and courage. This is the characteristic of great beings vested with a divine power, our Chosen Son being one of them. You can love him, my child, without any limit, since this kind of love is not rooted in human nature. Each day he must cope, and also deal with his state of mind and his weariness; the world of men is trying in many respects.

"We pay attention to his life, his struggles to serve us at any cost. He won over our hearts and those of very many abhyasis in the world, who have turned to his divine person. Beyond his manifestation on Earth, his aura is growing and belongs to the line of the greats. He is our success, and he gives us joy; the effects of grace take place to their full extent through him as well as in him.

"We rejoice in singing the praises of our son. He is growing with this Mission that is so close to our heart, as they say in human language. All great spiritual movements of this time started on a small scale, and then grew and defied time. This will also apply to our way, which occupies a choice place in sacred annals.

"We wish once again to reassure our beloved son, to encourage him. His human nature is subjected to so much pressure, the extent of which our aspirants cannot imagine. They often behave like selfish children, always expecting more from him, as their spiritual maturity sometimes leaves something to be desired.

"All in good time. All our brothers are on their way, but all do not advance at the same pace. It is up to them to interiorise themselves sufficiently, to be united inwardly to the divine human person of their Master."
