Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, March 6, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Immerse yourself in divine splendour, where your soul feels both that it exists and that it is nothing but a burning fire to the glory of the Almighty.

"In these moments, your being is in complete communion, harmonising its various aspects to better merge into the Immutable Peace.

"This ritual recreates harmony in you; your subtle bodies vibrate at the same wavelength, being deeply united with the essence. This day brings our brothers together; their numbers are growing, as well as their yearning to rise. These gatherings, as well as the fervour emerging from them, create a powerful appeal whose strength is channelled and unifies the whole of our Mission, under the vigilance of its Master who is attached to its sacred unity.

"Our way is soaring, supported by the higher powers. Its plans are just and it respects the human person; it does not impose but proposes a method capable of helping him. Each one of our brothers is advancing as he sees fit, guided and supported in accordance with his request. Not imposing, but rather proposing what the aspirant is looking for, letting him grow and open up to the Divine, and by accompanying him as well as possible – all this enables him to find his bearings in this family of souls, where he will keep his own personality.

"He will also advance towards the sacred table where he will receive his food, that which is prepared a very long time in advance and the fulfilment of which will take place at the allotted time. May all our brothers be struck by the final bedazzlement, which every soul craves in secrecy!

"Let us rejoice together for the progress made; it is far from being negligible for our way and its devotees."
