Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, March 13, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

My child, these messages will make their way into hearts; they were not given in vain. Their history is just starting. They represent a considerable work in which you have put a lot of energy and love. The relevant follow-up has been done since the beginning, showing fidelity to our cause, as well as competence.

"All is well: your decisions are right, and it is good that these documents are not grouped together at the same place. When they are published, it will be easier to make your decision known; it is right that the originals of these documents should remain in that country. They exist elsewhere. My son also has all of them, and it is important to plan, in order to dispatch them at the appropriate time in various places.

"These writings are important; they carry a special energy which will be revealed with time. The simplicity of their comments will touch hearts, much more than long erudite developments that only target the intellect. Only the heart is concerned here; in it, in its special content, the result is prepared following a mystical quest led with discernment.

"Everything in our way is done to facilitate this work of expansion of the soul, symbolised by the spiritual heart where the effectiveness of our action is demonstrated point by point.

"Sahaj Marg is just beginning its long journey within humanity – a humanity that has reached a turning point in its history. It seems that the next pages will be written more brilliantly, but the road to that stage is still long.

"May peace and harmony prevail in all hearts, there lay the foundations of a true elevation of a being towards his higher destiny."
