Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Monday, March 21, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

The perception of the Divine is refined from life to life; it is in the nature of evolution. Favourable conditions must be met for an incarnation to find its justification.

"Which purpose would these cycles serve, if they did not lead to an elevation of the soul? Our aspirants, as a whole, have reached a turning point regarding this. They must become aware of this issue. We are doing everything possible for that, making it easier for them to attain the true goal of any life, which is to focus on the main thing."
