Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, May 10, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Being united with the heart of one's Master provides hope and courage to the aspirant. Life on Earth consists of ceaseless struggles, providing him with every possibility of self-revelation, in terms of his best aspects.

"It is not useless to refer to a higher force; to understand this need is to have a sense of humility, which is necessary for any spiritual process. To recognise one's smallness in the face of the divine power, of the beings chosen to represent it in this world, shows the determination of the seeker to pursue his quest of the Divine, the true goal of an incarnation on Earth.

"All our brothers have taken this step. They are eager to progress in the way and do not dwell on the friction that is inevitable between human beings, even when they belong to the same spiritual process. Human characteristics cannot be swept away with the wave of a magic wand. To progress also means to learn how to control oneself, to take a new look at oneself, and especially to accept the differences in behaviour between people.

"The main thing lies elsewhere, uniting all in a surge of fervour during a transmission of divine energy, of which each one becomes a receptacle and a privileged sensor according to his inner aptitudes.

"Unified in such circumstances, what do differences of perception represent? Spiritually, they mean nothing. Our aspirants are growing in wisdom and smoothing their rough edges. All are guided and supported by the Master in an ascending movement specific to the egregore of our way – a way which corresponds to the dawning era."
